@ Tryout:

No you will not see me in Ottawa, actually I'm in Mexico, but I'm sure Dr. Rahal will make a great job with you!

Dr. Rahal will send me your pre and post surgery photos so I can post them here.

@ Floater:

I just talked about the FUE with Dr. Rahal and yes he is planning in using it in the future but right now he is very satisfied with the results he gets using the strip method.

@Pili:

I work for Dr. Rahal since October the 1st but I'm not in his office, I'm in Mexico.

@NW5a:

Thanks for the welcome and I appreciate very much the fact that you moved me to the right section. Like I said I have a hard time with german but I will still be working on it.

Right now I will post 2 very interesting cases, one is a female and another one is a male.

Hi Mary, very welcome to this forum!

Can you give us explanations to following questions:

- a) Who had the idea to represent Dr. Rahal in this forum?
- b) What have been the main reasons for the representation?
- c) Is it possible to call you by phone in europe?
- d) Does Dr. Rahal make surgeries in europe? If so, where and when?
- e) Do you have a row of hairline pics and would you be so kind to post them?

Thank you in advance...

Sure I can explain you.

- a) The Dr. Rahal needed a person who knew many languages and that could serve as a support point for Europe, just as he had one for America which is my colleague Adrian, by presenting his job to european people.
 - b) The main reason is to have a referall person between the european market and the Doctor. Many times the patients have questions and the Doctor or my colleague have the time to reply.
 - c)Not at the moment but I will put an MSN contact so I can chat with the patients answering questions.
 - d) No the Dr. Rahal only performs surgeries in Ottawa, Canada.
 - e)I just posted 2 cases, one about a female and the other one about a male in this section and just as I get the authorization of the patients I will be posting more cases of Dr. Rahal.

Ja ?
Wird "to give a big hand for somebody" nicht als Phrase für "jemanden Applaus geben" verwendet ?

Hi Mary

I'm a native English speaker who also speaks German, so I may be able to assist you with any German issues, such as those raised by Alopezie.de

Ich had my operation with Dr Rahal on the 27rd of August, here is my thread
<http://alopezie.de/foren/transplant/index.php/t/1684/>

I'm wondering if you are the contact partner for operational issues or inquiries on behalf of new patients.

I have many operational issue following my OP and some concerns.

Having read that the 2-3 Month phase is the worst and lowest point of the process I am hoidng off on taking them to Dr Rahal at this time.

What I however find is that even if you do research, and mine was a year long in all of the major forums, and chosse a top doctors there are still elements of the operation that are not explained anywhere. On that I am finding are issue of sensation in the areas not operated on, and others to boot. I wont care much in 6 months if i get the result I hoped. But for people going through the procedure, Dr Rahal needs to provide more information as the formulas we have all had. Perhaps we could address this issue too.

I'm not as big an expert as many here, but I made the trip and I had the OP and there may be some benefit from my comments

Hello Predator, first of all nice to meet you and thanks for offering your help about the translations in german, I may take your word on that.

Second off, yes as a representative of Dr. Rahal I am here to answer your questions and to give advice also for the post-surgery period.

If you want to tell me the things you feel you need assistance with I will be glad to try and clear them up.

Thank you for your comment and make sure that when you have a question you mail it to me at: maria@rahalhairtransplant.com

And if you have a question for the doctor himself you can always send it to me and I will let him know.
