weil ein paar leute nach spectral.dnc gefragt haben:

mail von inhousepharmacy:

"Hello

We will be supplying Spectral DNC within the next 6 weeks. However, we are having problems with delivery to most regions in Europe.

Customs will not allow any of our products into Germany and seize any shipment. This is because our products are not EU registered and not shipped from an EU country (we are based in the South Pacific).

We can ship to the following countries without problems: Switzerland, USA, UK, Australia and Japan. Our apologies for the inconvenience.

Sincerely

Customer services"

mail von devineskin selbst:

"Thank you for the interest in the DS Laboratories products! Spectral DNC is now available on many internet retailers on the US and also in Spain in Europe. Please view below a link with all the contact information for this retailer store in Europe:

<http://www.evocentro.com/main.html>

Please try calling them at 968 23 14 36."

ist etwas komisch; diese webseite erscheint als eine transpl.-klinik oder sowas, aber devineskin hat gesagt, man soll diese nummer anrufen...
