Urgent notice! Due to the extreme demand NanoSal minoxidil is currently out of stock. A new slightly modified batch will come out in about 2 weeks. Please be patient. 90 % of the customers have decided that this product is right for them and we will increase production. If you are in urgent need to continue your treatment please contact us via email. We will substitute the solution with the shampoo version for no extra charge. The shampoo has the same properties and only needs to be used every 2-3 days."
